What is a Foster Carer?

Your Foster Carer is a person who will look after you.

They will make sure you are safe and happy.

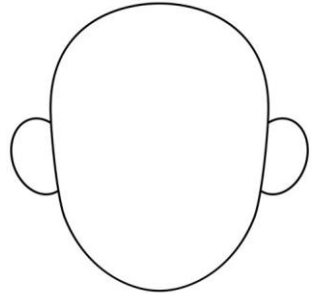

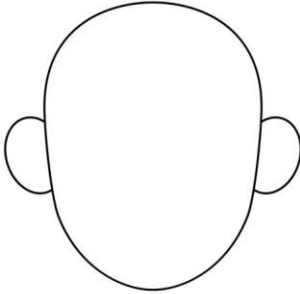

Your foster carer will show you around the house and you will meet everyone who lives there. Your Foster Carer will show you where your bedroom is and where you can play.

What does their house look like?

My Foster Carers

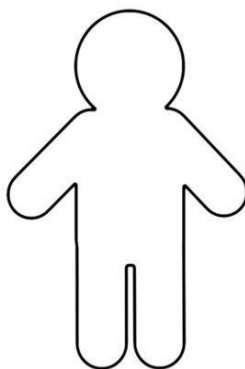

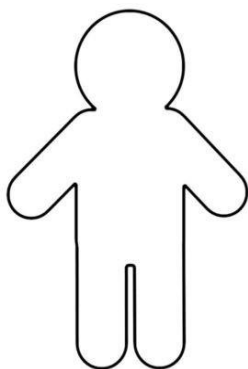

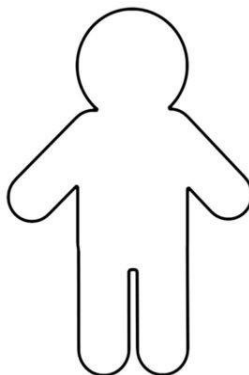

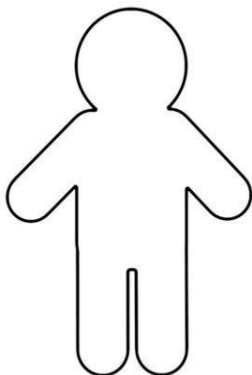

Foster Carers are special adults who have been chosen to look after children who cannot live with their family at this time.
